

Australia, Oceania, and More Unit Test

1. Name that refers to the numerous island nations of the Pacific Ocean
 - a. Pacific Islands
 - b. Oceania
 - c. New Zealand
 - d. Timor
2. Term given to the original inhabitants of the region, especially used to describe the native people of Australia
 - a. Aborigines
 - b. Mayans
 - c. Incans
 - d. Natives
3. Mountain range that runs north to south in eastern Australia and contributes to the dry climate on much of the western part of Australia
 - a. Appalachian Mountains
 - b. East Australia Mountains
 - c. West Australia Mountains
 - d. Great Dividing Range
4. Which conflict between the United States and Spain led to the United States gaining several territories in the Pacific Ocean
 - a. Spanish-American War
 - b. Civil War
 - c. Revolutionary War
 - d. War of 1812
5. What agreement established Antarctica as a continent for science and peace?
 - a. United Nations Treaty
 - b. World Treaty of 1961
 - c. Antarctic Treaty of 1961
 - d. Antarctic Pact
6. The small island in the Marshall Islands where the United States conducted nuclear testing in the 1940s and 50s.
 - a. Haiti
 - b. Samoa
 - c. New Zealand
 - d. Bikini Atoll
7. This type of farming is common in the region

- a. Subsistence
 - b. Truck farming
 - c. Corporate farming
 - d. No farming at all
8. This type of commercial trade and means of survival exists in the islands of Oceania.
- a. Fishing
 - b. Wool
 - c. Corn
 - d. Beans
9. New Zealand and other areas of the region are subject to these types of natural disasters:
- a. Tornadoes and drought
 - b. Drought and floods
 - c. Typhoons and earthquakes
 - d. Tornadoes and floods
10. New Zealand aborigines are called
- a. Zealanders
 - b. Maori
 - c. Samoan
 - d. Australians
11. What is the instrument most associated with the aborigines in Australia?
- a. Flute
 - b. Drum
 - c. Didgeridoo
 - d. Trumpet
12. What livestock is most commonly associated with New Zealand?
- a. Sheep
 - b. Cow
 - c. Horse
 - d. Pig

Fill in the blank

13. What is the smallest continent area-wise? _____

14. Which continent has no permanent residents? _____

15. The term used to describe the area of Australia which is rugged, has a small population, and has a dry climate: _____

16. Name New Zealand's two large islands

17. What is the name of the large coral reef off the coast of Australia?

18. Which language is spoken throughout Australia and New Zealand?

19. Name one of two languages spoken throughout Oceania as a result of colonization

20. Oceania has this type of climate _____

21. Is there a government structure in Antarctica? _____

22. _____ provides an underground water source to part of the Australian outback.

23. _____ is an animal unique to Australia (can be multiple answers).

24. Who has a well developed road and rail system? _____

25. New Zealand uses this produced from volcanoes for geothermal power in parts of the nation. _____

Extra credit:

26. List three minerals mined in Australia

27. What is Australia's most popular spectator sport?
