

Day 131

Digestive System Disorders

Go to the following website:

<http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/digestivesystem.html>

Review the structures of the digestive system using the interactive diagram. When you click on each digestive organ, a list of disorders related to that structure will be displayed. Complete the chart by matching the disorder with the structure involved with the disorder. Click on the disorder to get the description. Many disorders affect more than one structure so be sure to include all affected organs.
